Since their orchestral debut in 1997 with the Rochester Philharmonic and conductor Jeff Tyzik, Mambo Kings have appeared at the Bravo! Vail Valley Music Festival and in pops concerts with orchestras in Baltimore, Vancouver, Detroit, Dallas, Naples (Florida) and Portland (Oregon), among many others, performing original compositions and arrangements by pianist Richard DeLaney. As a quintet, Mambo Kings have appeared as featured soloists at the 2003 and 2008 Xerox Rochester International Jazz Fest, Music in the Mountains Festival in Colorado, Lewiston (New York) Jazz Fest and the 2017 Big Sky Arts Fest in Bozeman, Montana. The group's 2016-2017 season opened with shows in Chattanooga and Fort Lewis (Arkansas) and included return performances with the Vancouver and Dallas Symphony Orchestras. Their 2017-2018 season featured shows with the Spokane and Louisville Symphonies, Rochester Philharmonic and New Jersey Symphony.
